Annex 1: Guide to Writing a Support Letter for Your Own Application

Guide: Support Letter

One of the documents needed to complete the exemption application is a letter, written by yourself, explaining why you are part of this application.

You can address this letter to the Minister of Home Affairs.

This letter can be simple.

It is your letter, to explain reasons why you want to remain in South Africa and why you cannot apply for a new work/business/study permit. You can write what you feel is important.

This letter must be your own. Feel free to express your opinions on this issue. You must write what you want.

The information here is only a guide

- Ideas for your letter:
- When did you come to South Africa, and why?
- Explain your links to South Africa. How have you integrated in South Africa?
 Through your children, job, family? For example you could write about
 - Your wife/husband
 - Your children whether they feel integrated in SA
 - Other family in SA
 - Cultural, religious or community links active in a church, sports, or in a social group; knowledge of South African languages.
 - If you have a property, a home
 - The work or job you have in SA
- Explain your refugee status being taken away / two-year permit how do you feel about this?
- Did you try to extend at VFS?
- Have you had difficulties to apply for another permit? If so, explain.
- Why is it difficult for you to apply for a new permit?
- How do you feel about returning to Angola? If you wish to remain in South Africa, why?
- And, of course, anything else you want to write.
